Sanjore

Tranquebar 2d Sept 1834

To

The Collector

of Madura

Sir,

I have the honor to reply to your letter of the 19th ultimo

When this province was first ceded to the British Government, Mr Charles Harris the Collector, arranged that for backyards to houses, 120 goontahs should be allowed free of tax to mearassedars, 100 goontahs to poracoodies, 80 goontahs to slaves, & 60 goontahs to all not holding or cultivating land - and these arrangements are still valid in all backyards given prior to Jusly 1237.

Since the Jyunesh then made 40 goontahs only, exclusive of the ground occupied by the house, were allowed as backyard, and since Jusly 1250, the house ground has been included in the 40 goontahs.

I have the honor to be
